Profile

Senior games producer with 25+ years in the industry and adjacent delivery roles. I have shipped 28 titles across console, handheld and PC, and delivered 11 Unreal Engine live events serving thousands of concurrent players. I own production end-to-end, from scoping and milestones through launch and live ops, and I lead with a people-first approach, using frameworks that enable great work rather than constrain it.

Skills

- Game production: end-to-end ownership from concept and scoping through milestones, launch and iteration
- Live operations: real-time multiplayer live events in Unreal Engine for thousands of concurrent players
- Delivery leadership: Scrum, Kanban, Waterfall and hybrid models; roadmaps, milestone schedules and budgets
- Partner management: publishers, platform holders, external developers and vendors
- Cross-functional alignment: design, art, engineering, audio, QA, marketing and localisation
- QA leadership: QA operating models, release quality and team coaching
- Platforms: PlayStation, Xbox, Nintendo, PC, Facebook and mobile
- Tools: Jira, Confluence, workflow design and production tooling
